St George

Forged from fragments, yet noble in stance,
A woolly icon reborn from a metal dance.
Silent and steady beside the traveller's track,
Find the crafted creature where steel meets Outback.

Hebel

I wasn't born in a factory line,
My parts once lived very different lives.
I hint at the sky but stay on the ground,
A curious contraption waiting to be found.

COLLECT AT: Hebel General Store

Thallon

Faces of legends watch from the shade,
Stories in colour that time cannot fade.
Locals immortalised, a vibrant crew,
Find the place where familiar lives come into view.

COLLECT AT: Thallon Coffee Shop

Nindigully

Tools, tools everywhere you look,
But these ones aren't in a toolbox nook.
Instead you'll find some steam and spray,
The spot where road dust washes away.

COLLECT AT: Nindigully Pub

Dirranbandi

Once home to sisters in quiet retreat,
Where whispered prayers and footsteps meet.
A sacred past now playing a different part,
Seek the little haven shaped by love and heart.

COLLECT AT: Dirranbandi Servo

Bollon

Not made in lines nor polished bright,
But shaped by hand with stubborn might.
An old contraption that works the land,
Drawing secrets up from sand.

COLLECT AT: Bollon Service Station

Mungindi

I keep no time, yet I measure the past,
Silent lines whisper of moments vast.
Seek the sentinel etched with the river's climb,
Its marks share a story told in time.
