BOLLON
B&B

On Guwamu/Kooma Country

Luxury Outback Accommodation

in Bollon's historic post office

39 Main Street, Bollon
0413 062 068
bollonbandb@outlook.com

BOLLON HARDWARE & RURAL SUPPLIES

LOCALLY OWNED & OPERATED

From pet essentials, stockfeed, animal husbandry rural supplies, fencing & plasson pipe fittings.

WE'VE GOT YOU COVERED!

26-28 Main Street, Bollon
E: bollonhardware@gmail.com
Heather - 0488 617 376
Michael - 0409 215 346

little mulga mailbox

- Coffee
- Post Office
- Bank@Post
- Laminating & Printing
- Gifts and Homewares

Contact: 0448 748 791
Open: Monday, Wednesday & Friday (9am – 5pm)
8 George Street, Bollon QLD 4488

DIRRANBANDI COMMUNITY PHARMACY

Open: Monday–Friday
9:00am–12:30pm
& 1:30pm–5:00pm

50 Railway Street, Dirranbandi
P: (07) 4620 7060 | F: (07) 4620 7080

Dirranbandi OUTBACK TOURS

45 Kirby St, Dirranbandi | P: 0447 555 685
E: dirranbandicaravanpark@gmail.com
dirranbandioutback.com.au/tours

NULLAWOKKA FIRST NATIONS GALLERY & TOURS

On Guwamu/Kooma Country

Authentic Indigenous artworks products & souvenirs

Exclusive 4WD cultural tours
Bookings essential

22A Main Street, Bollon
0413 062 068
nullawokka@outlook.com

WELCOME TO

Bollon

Wallam Creek

EXPLORE Bollon
QUEENSLAND'S ST GEORGE REGION

EXPLORE Bollon

As you head west, the soil deepens to a rich red and welcomes you to the charming town of Bollon, a name believed to come from the word Bolion, meaning stone tomahawk or axe. Famous for its picture-perfect camping area along peaceful Wallam Creek, Bollon is a favourite stop for travellers chasing birdlife, local stories and easy-going country hospitality.

This connection can be explored at Nullawokka First Nations Gallery and through local First Nations tours, where stories, culture and connection to Country are shared in a meaningful and memorable way.

Down by Wallam Creek, follow the walkway to discover peaceful picnic spots, abundant birdlife and the town's resident Muscovy ducks. Keep an eye out along the campsite and river walk too, as you might just spot the local koala tucked among the gums.

The Wallam Creek campsite is also home to a machinery display, featuring an old drilling rig from 1951, adding another piece of local history to this much-loved free camping spot.

Take a wander through town and call into the Little Mulga Mailbox, a local shop tucked inside the post office, for a browse, a chat and a little taste of Bollon charm. Next, make your way to the Bollon Heritage Centre to discover the town's pastoral history and long connection to sheep, shearing and life on the land.

Heading further west? Stop by the local hardware store, then call into Wallam Creek General Store for a meal or to stock up before the next leg of your trip.

For further information visit our website: explorebollon.com.au or scan the QR Code.

Find us on @StGeorgeRegion